

AYESHA GAMIET

e: info@ayeshagamiet.com
w: <http://ayeshagamiet.com>

Art, Illustration and Design

Education

- 2013 – 14: MEd Art, Creativity, Education and Culture, University of Cambridge
- 2012 – 13: Post-Graduate Certificate in Education (PGCE) Secondary Art & Design, University of Cambridge
- 2005 – 07: MA Visual Islamic and Traditional Arts, The Prince's School of Traditional Arts, London
- 2004 – 05: 1 Year Certificate in Modern Standard Arabic, School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS), University of London
- 2001 – 04: BA History of Art and Archaeology of Africa and Asia (2:1), SOAS, University of London
- 1998 – 2000: 'A' Levels in Sociology, English Literature and Art, (A, B, B), Beaconsfield High School
- 1994 – 98: 10 GCSE's, grades A-C, Beaconsfield High School

Work Experience

2013 – 2014:

Teacher of Art & Design, Featherstone High School, London

- Experience of planning, teaching and assessing Art & Design from Key Stages 3-4.

Sept 2007 - Present:

Independent Artist, Illustrator and Art Educator

- Running an educational art studio in Windsor, Berkshire, offering Islamic art courses for the public.
- Delivering training on Islamic art for new art teachers, Faculty of Education, University of Cambridge.
- Presented research and delivered a workshop on Islamic manuscript illumination at Christ Church College, University of Oxford.
- Clients for illustration work have included the Bloomsbury / Qatar Foundation and Stacey International.
- Undertaking art commissions for private clients.
- For information about my teaching work and exhibitions please see below.

Sept 2007 – Present:

Sessional tutor / outreach tutor at the Prince's School of Traditional Arts.

- Responsible for planning and delivering art courses within the UK and abroad.
- Experience of curricula development and designing teaching resources.
- Responsible for leading teachers and volunteers in international projects.
- Responsible for providing training for new colleagues.
- Responsible for managing project budget.
- Termly short courses for adult learners in Islamic manuscript illumination.
- Islamic art workshops at the House of Traditional Arts, Jeddah, Saudi Arabia
- Teaching undergraduate and post-graduate art students in Medina, Saudi Arabia
- Introductory Islamic arts classes for adults and children at Qatara Cultural Village, Qatar.
- Workshops at the Emirates Palace, Shaykh Zayed University, and higher College of Technology Abu Dhabi.
- Islamic art workshop at Mosaic International Summer School 2009, University of Cambridge.
- Islamic arts workshops and seminars held in primary and secondary schools, throughout the UK.

AYESHA GAMIET

e: info@ayeshagamiet.com
w: <http://ayeshagamiet.com>

Art, Illustration and Design

Exhibitions:

- Spring 2013: Traditional and Continuity: Woven & Decorated Textiles of the Malay Peninsular, Islamic Arts Museum Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur
- Nov 2010: Exhibition and workshop, New Art Gallery Walsall
- Aug 2010: Alumni Show, The Prince's School of Traditional Arts, London.
- Nov 2009: Alumni of the Prince's School of Traditional Arts, The Sacred Space Gallery, London.
- Oct 2009: The Royal Miniature Society Annual Exhibition, The Mall Galleries, London.
- Sept 2009: Islamic Arts Exhibition, The West Wing Arts Centre, Slough.
- Nov 2008: Divine Inspiration: Seven Principles of Islamic Architecture, Islamic Arts Museum Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur.
- June 2008: SUKUK Summit, The Royal Horse Guards Hotel, London.
- June 2007: The Visual Islamic and Traditional Arts (VITA) Degree Show, The Prince's School of Traditional Arts, London.

Voluntary Work and Other Experience:

- Aug 2006 – Present:
Research into the art of Islamic Manuscript Illumination, Istanbul
Currently completing a traditional apprenticeship in Islamic manuscript illumination under a Master Illuminator and calligrapher based in Istanbul.
- Apr-Jul 2009:
Short course in Children's Book Illustration, The Mary Ward Centre, London
- Mar 2009:
Completion of the Community Arts Training Scheme (CATS), Slough Borough Council
- May 2006:
Cross-cultural exchange trip to Bangladesh with the British Foreign and Commonwealth Office
- 2002-03:
Voluntary work with FAIR, an anti-racism charity in London
- Jan-Apr 2001:
Volunteer English teacher at a primary school in Sarawak, Malaysia
- Sept-Dec 2000:
Short course in Bahasa Malaysia, SOAS, London
- July 2000:
Short course in Teaching English Abroad, Birkbeck College, London